Honor

Appointments

Jon Tack

Jon Tack has been an honor student at Goffstown High School. His ability was rewarded when he was honored with the following nominations: second alternate to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis from Senator Norris Cotton, competitive nomination to the Air Force Academy from Representative Chester E. Merrow, and fifth alternate nomination to the Air Force Academy from Senator Styles Bridges. The entire school is proud of and happy for Jon.

D. A. R. Good Citizen

Jane Backus was chosen to receive the DAR Good Citizen Award from Goffstown High School. She has maintained a high honor roll average. She has served as class president, president of the Student Council, the National Honor Society, and the Dramatics Club, and has participated in many other school and community activities. Representing Goffstown at the state competition held in February, she received the second highest DAR award in the state. Goffstown High School is proud of her.

Jane Backus

Granite Girls' State

Jeani Dunsmore, Nancy Smith, Jane Backus.

Profile Boys' State began on June 22, 1958 at the University of New Hampshire for some 200 boys. Representing Goffstown were Bob Draper and Jon Tack. They learned about our government and, at the same time, met many boys and made many friends.

Nancy Smith, Jeani Dunsmore, and Jane Backus were the lucky ones chosen to attend Granite Girls' State from Goffstown. Their week was spent in much the same way as the boys'. They also had many wonderful memories to bring home. All five agreed that it was a wonderful experience.

Profile Boys' State

Jon Tack and Bob Draper.

Class

We, the class of 1959, of Goffstown High School, town of Goffstown, county of Hillsborough, state of New Hampshire, being of unsound mind and memory, do hereby declare this to be our first and last will and testament.

To Mr. Holmes, the Senior Problems Class leaves all the pleasant memories of the delightful fourth period.

To the remaining members of the girls' basketball team, this year's senior girls leave the task of arguing for and keeping girls' basketball as a school activity. After all, Mr. Moulton, it's traditional!

To the custodians, we, the senior class, leave our extreme ability for keeping the rooms and corridors spotless.

To Mr. Sweet, the seniors leave memories of a lively chemistry class. We now have knowledge of everything that pops, smokes, and explodes. Beware world. . .here we come!

To Mr. Simpson, the senior trigonometry class leaves all its complaints about homework and test marks.

To next year's yearbook staff, this year's staff leaves the benefit of its experience.

To anyone who dares to wear it, Pete Athearn leaves his "Swiss mountain climbing hat."

To her sister, Anne, Jane Backus leaves her ability to keep from going steady.

To Shirley Shatney, Phyllis Bailey leaves her position as class pest.

Bob Barnard LEAVES.

To Peter Swanburg, Bud Batchelder leaves what is left of his car. We truly hope that Pete has better luck with it than Bud has had.

To any girl in the Freshman Class, Louise Belanger leaves her talent for dating the same guy for four years.

To Bette Miles, Rick Bristol leaves his red hair. The Junior Class can use a red-head.

To Barry Riddell, Tom Brown leaves his Studebaker, or should we say his "steady-breaker?"

To Jim Philbrook, Charles Chapman leaves his parking space.

To any girl who wants it, Sue Cunningham leaves her seat in the Puritan.

To Andy Harden, John Davis leaves his flirting skill. We know Andy will make good use of this valuable asset.

To Ken Watt, Carole Desruisseaux leaves her height of 4'10".

To Steve Kehas, Bob Draper leaves his ease at getting along with Mr. Konieczny.

We regret to say that Jean Dunsmore leaves nothing. She's taking it all with her.

To anyone who has the habit of going to school, Jackie Fellows leaves her left over paper, pencils, and books.

To Sharon Simpson, Connie Florand leaves her pixie haircut.

To Pam Harden and Jeannie Martin, Dottie Grant and Claire Gagne leave their shyness. This gift should prove very interesting.

To the incoming senior class secretary, Bruce Gilbert leaves his skill at getting out of giving secretary reports.

To Janice Bristol, Deanna Goodwin leaves her talent for falling off horses.

Will

To Donald Lemoine, Richard Hardy leaves his consumer math book. (It has all the answers in it)

To her brother, Charles, Jane Lee leaves her ability to make the honor roll.

To any experienced truck driver in the future senior class, Lucy Hall leaves the two parking spaces that her truck occupies.

To his brother Ralph, Ronnie Henault leaves his dancing ability.

To Jeannette Lefebvre, Ruth Hoitt leaves her acting skills. Jeannette is sure to play the leading role in all the plays.

To Geoffrey Griffin, Richard Hotchkiss leaves his appetite. Now we can be sure that Geoffrey will grow as big and strong as Rick.

To "Red" Moller, Robert Huot leaves his first period study hall privileges.

To Charlie Conrad, Paul Lebrun leaves his haircut and a month's supply of hair tonic to keep it in place.

To anyone who likes water, Shirley LeFleur leaves her misfortunes at knocking over water bubblers.

To Melvin LeBlanc, Marie Lefebvre leaves her quick service that she learned while working at the Hitching Post.

To Mr. Sweet and Mr. Simpson, Cliff Martel leaves all the broken beakers, flasks, and test tubes which he seems to have a knack for breaking.

To anyone who likes a steady job, Sylvia Marshall leaves her position in the "ticket cage."

To his sister and her boyfriend, Bob Morgan leaves all the time they want to themselves on Friday nights.

To Joan Paradis, Nancy Mudge leaves her ease at getting out of classes. . .officially, no less!

To anyone who likes to hunt, Pete Olson leaves the privilege of having the first day of December off.

To Dick Lanseigne, Lorraine Ouellette leaves her keen sense of humor.

To the future class advisors, Ken Read leaves a bottle of aspirin and an understanding mind in order that they may maintain an objective class meeting.

To anyone who wants it, Gerry Richard leaves his ability to get along with teachers. Let's hope that many will claim this valuable talent.

To anybody who dares, Roger Roy leaves his skill at playing hookey successfully.

To Tony Roy, Sylvia Sevigny leaves her legal privilege to leave school at two o'clock. Tony, no doubt, will use this privilege regularly.

To Kathy Merrill, Nancy Smith leaves her musical ability to keep the chorus rocking.

To Tom Katsekas, Jon Tack leaves his tremendous speed on the basketball team. This will surely put us in the tournament next year.

To his sister, Maita, Pee Wee Whipple leaves the good marks that he regrets he never got.

In witness whereof, we, the Senior Class have set our hand this seventeenth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Nine.

TALLEST AND SHORTEST

The class of nineteen-fifty nine will soon be out of school.
Each and every member will be skilled with mind or tool.
And so if we could look ahead about five years or less,
We would find that each of us will be a big success.

PETER ATHEARN will study psychiatry,
And help the mentally disabled towards vitality.

JANE BACKUS will interpret at United Nations Meetings.
She'll talk to the Russians and extend to them our greetings.

ROBERT BARNARD repairs televisions galore.
He'll soon become the owner of Hall's TV store.

VICTOR BATCHELDER will join the navy and go to sea.
If he is of good service, an admiral he will be.

Traveling over land and sea,
An airline stewardess CAROL BEEBE will be.

FREDERICK BRISTOL will travel around the world and see many faces.
Someday he may write a book about the different places.

The moon is a challenge to THOMAS BROWN.
He will be a space explorer renowned.

Living alone without any wives,
CHARLES CHAPMAN and RICHARD HARDY will lead peaceful lives.

SUSAN CUNNINGHAM will be an artist.
We know in this field she'll be the smartest.

Electrical engineering is really quite a trade.
We know that JOHN DAVIS is sure to make the grade.

CAROLE DESRUISSEAU and CHRISTINE LEUTERT soon will be wed,
And at their weddings many tears will be shed.

As a baseball player ROBERT DRAPER will make his name.
He's sure to end up in Baseball's Hall of Fame.

JEAN DUNSMORE is very peppy and never in the red.
If she can stay in shape, she will teach phys. ed.

JACKIE FELLOWS hasn't made a choice.
She'll probably make a living with her voice.

CONNIE FLORAND will write a dramatic play,
And PHYLLIS BAILEY will be director all the way.

CLAIRE GAGNE and DOROTHY GRANT, who take dictation and type,
Will be efficient secretaries and work from morn 'till night.

BRUCE GILBERT likes to grind his Chevy's gears.
Maybe he'll become a mechanical engineer.

DEANNA GOODWIN, if she is able,
Will be the owner of a horse training stable.

LUCY HALL will go to Texas. (we think this is swell)
She will marry a millionaire, and own an oil well.

RONALD HENAULT is needed by our Uncle Sam.
He'll be a paratrooper. (let's hope he can land)

RUTH HOITT, who has had a lot of stage practice,
Will go to Hollywood to be a famous actress.

Prophecy

RICHARD HOTCHKISS will have to be on the beam
When he goes to Paris Island to become a marine.

ROBERT HUOT is an outdoor man.
At fishing and hunting he will be grand.

PAUL LEBRUN'S first million isn't very far,
For he will buy a guitar, and be a singing star.

SHIRLEY LAFLEUR will travel to some distant foreign land.
There she'll be a secretary to a missionary man.

JANET LARIVIERE is always well dressed.
As fashion designer she'll be at her best.

Many interests has JANE LEE,
But a medical secretary she will be.

MARIE LEFEBVRE and LOUISE BELANGER will go to school
To teach their students the golden rule.

SYLVIA MARSHALL has many ambitions.
She will be good at taking dictations.

CLIFFORD MARTEL will sell real estate.
His father's business will be his fate.

ROBERT MORGAN, whom the Air Force has met,
Will be the mechanic of DICK BILODEAU'S jet.

NANCY MUDGE will be a nurse,
And all the germs she will disperse.

PETER OLSON is a cook at Russell's G.P.Y.
He will own a restaurant to serve you and I.

LORRAINE OUELLETTE will be a pilot
If she ever dares to try it.

PAULINE OUELLETTE, who's such a good cook,
Will be the author of a Betty Crocker Book.

KENNETH READ will be an apprentice
And someday become a famous dentist.

GERALD RICHARD will go down South
And be the best welder around the Gulf.

Missiles and rockets are ROGER ROY'S dream.
He'll be the inventor of the next space machine.

SYLVIA SEVIGNY sure is swell.
Miss America should fit her well.

NANCY SMITH should have much pride,
For she'll be a pianist, famous far and wide.

RALPH ST. CYR will be a D.J., famous o'er the land.
He will be spinning records on American Bandstand.

JON TACK will be a scientist (that we'll soon see)
Creating monsters for TV.

MAURICE WHIPPLE likes to ski on water and on snow.
We're sure that he will be a champ wherever he may go.

Now that we have seen our future, and know how we will stand,
We see our Goffstown High gained knowledge will be in great demand.

Citizenship, scholarship, leadership, and service make up the requirements for membership in the National Honor Society. Any student who maintains a high scholastic average, is a good citizen both in school and in the community, is a good leader, and contributes his service willingly to projects of his school and community is eligible for membership. In the spring new members are chosen. A certain percentage of the three upper classes may gain membership. It is a high and distinguished honor to be a member of the National Honor Society.

Early in the fall, the Student Council, advised by Mr. Moulton and Mr. Gardner, got started with school-wide elections of president and vice-president. Other officers were elected and soon the council was running smoothly.

The high light of the season was the annual winter carnival. Other projects undertaken were: revising of the Constitution, publishing of the handbook, and running of the annual field day.

Band

Mr. Vincent Ferdinando
Director

The school band under the direction of Mr. Vincent Ferdinando had approximately forty members this year. Small group instruction was given twice a week to members of the band who desired it. Instruments were available to students for rental. Rental payments go toward the purchase of the instrument should the student wish to buy it. The band participated in various school programs and assemblies. The high light of the season came in the spring when the annual spring concert was presented. At the concert parents and friends enjoyed the selections played by the members of the band.

Winter

The Annual Winter Carnival, sponsored by the Student Council, was held during the last week of January. "Pageant in White" was the theme chosen for the carnival, and although some of the skiing events and the sculpturing could not be held, everyone enjoyed the other features of the carnival.

The carnival got off to a good start with tobogganing races and a skating party held Wednesday. Skating and skiing races were also held. A basketball game against Pittsfield, which Goffstown won by a score of 64 to 40, was held Friday night and was followed by a record hop.

Students earned points for their respective classes in various activities. The class in each division which accumulated the most points won an all-round trophy. The winners were:

Senior Division -- Class of '59

Junior Division -- Class of '62

Due to the fact that some events were postponed, awards were not presented at the carnival ball. They were awarded at a special record hop held for this purpose.

Carnival

The ball on Saturday night brought the carnival to an exciting end. A huge crowd attended and everyone had a wonderful time. The climax of the evening came when Colleen Burns and Anne Backus, queen and princess for 1958, crowned the 1959 queen and princess, Jane Backus and Patricia Kamieniecki. First and second aides to the queen were Pam Harden and Sharon Simpson. First and second aides to the princess were Pallas Gobin and Donna Lowe.

One Act Play

CAST: Mrs. Isquith and Mr. Gardner, Directors, R. Hoitt, T. Roy, A. Stevens, A. Batten, R. Paige. Absent: J. Backus.

On March 27, at the University of New Hampshire, the Goffstown High School Dramatics Club presented excerpts from THE WINSLOW BOY by Terence Rattigen, at the annual Drama Festival.

The play is about a father, Tony Roy, who fights for the honor of his son, Arthur Batten, who has been accused of stealing a postal order. The father is assisted by his daughter, Jane Backus, a staunch supporter of women's rights, who, because of her actions, loses her boyfriend, Bob Paige. The remaining characters are a very busy and important lawyer, Alan Stevens, and a sympathetic mother, Ruth Hoitt.

The play was directed by Mrs. Vivian Isquith and Mr. Louis Gardner. It was presented to the student body at an assembly before going into competition.

Prom Queen

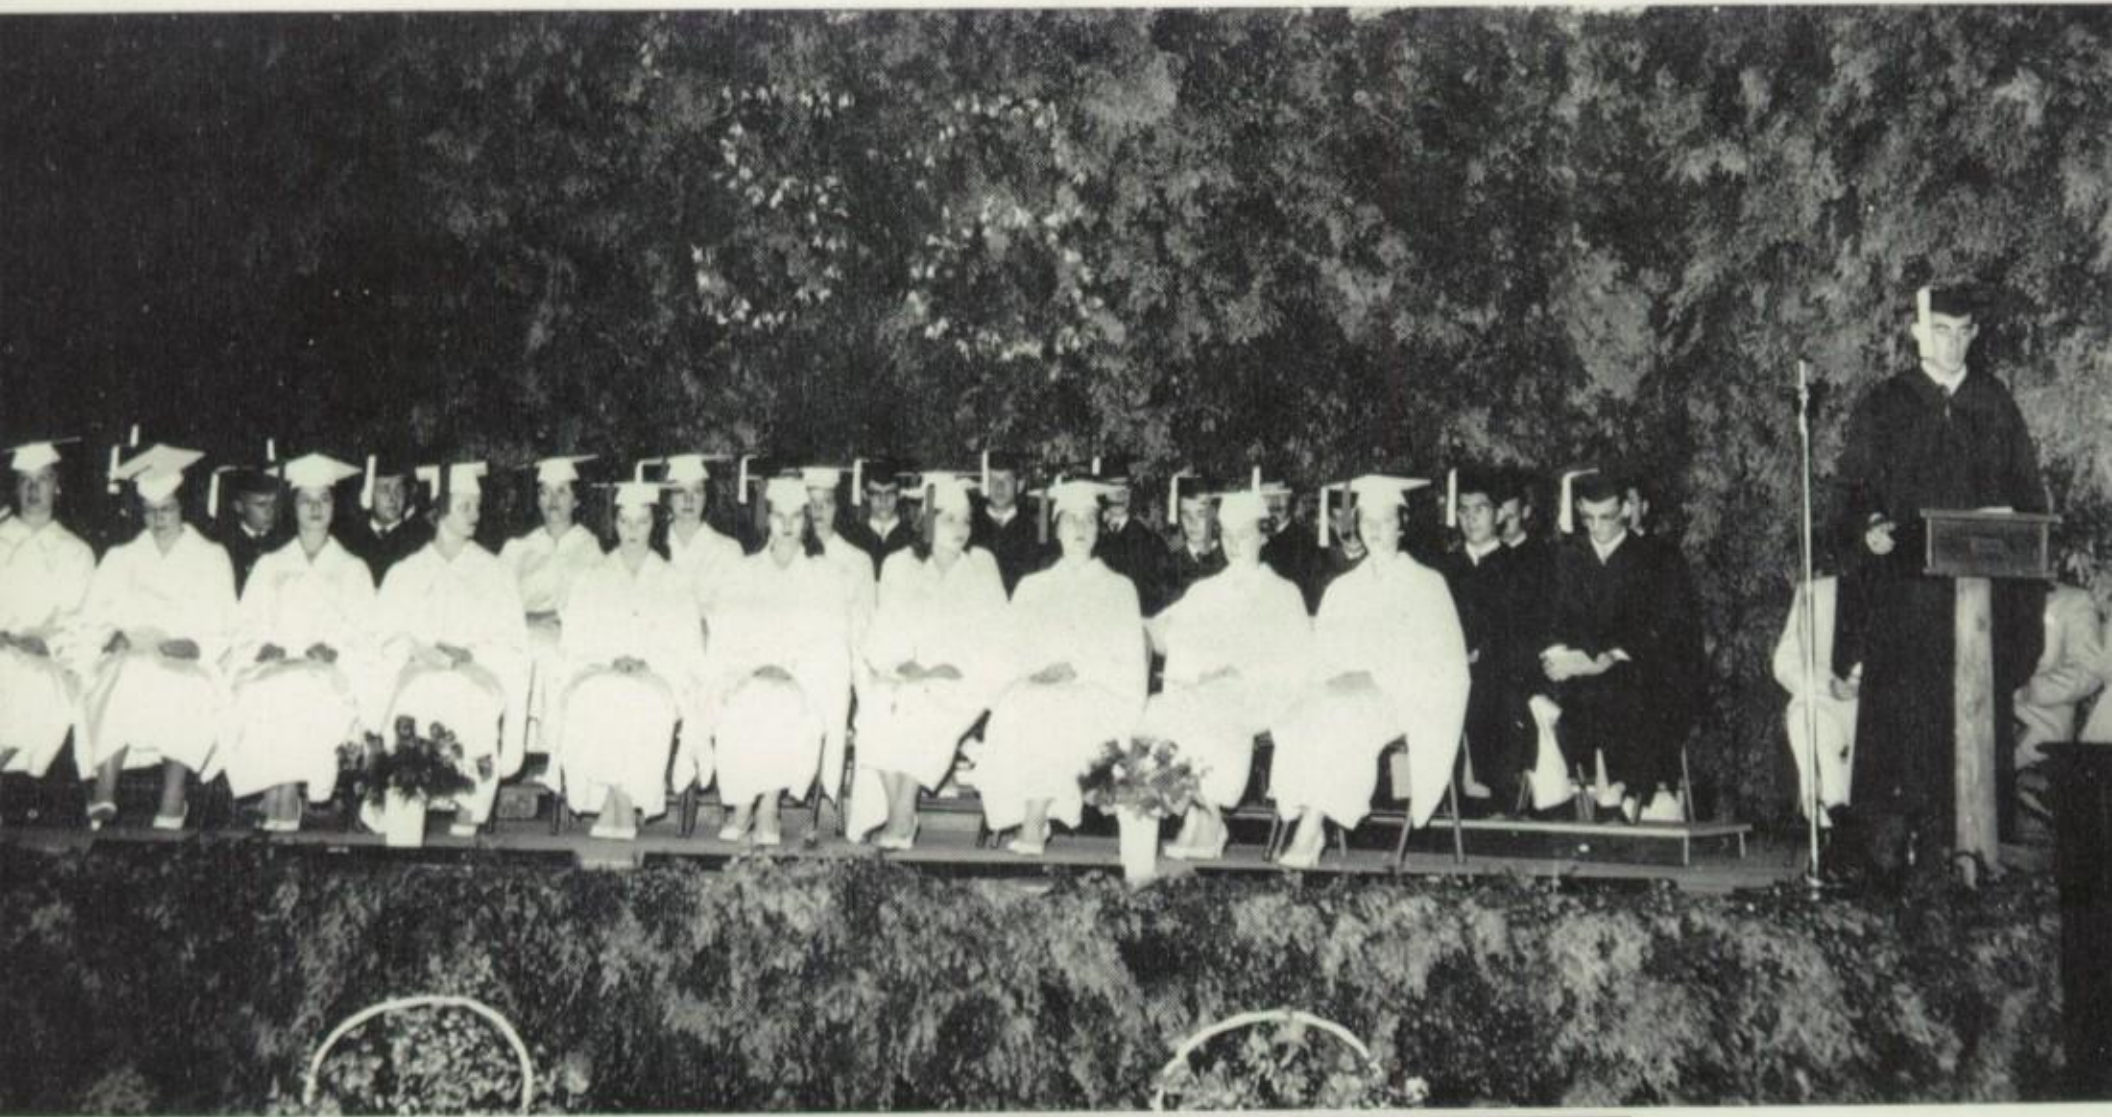

Junior Prom 1958

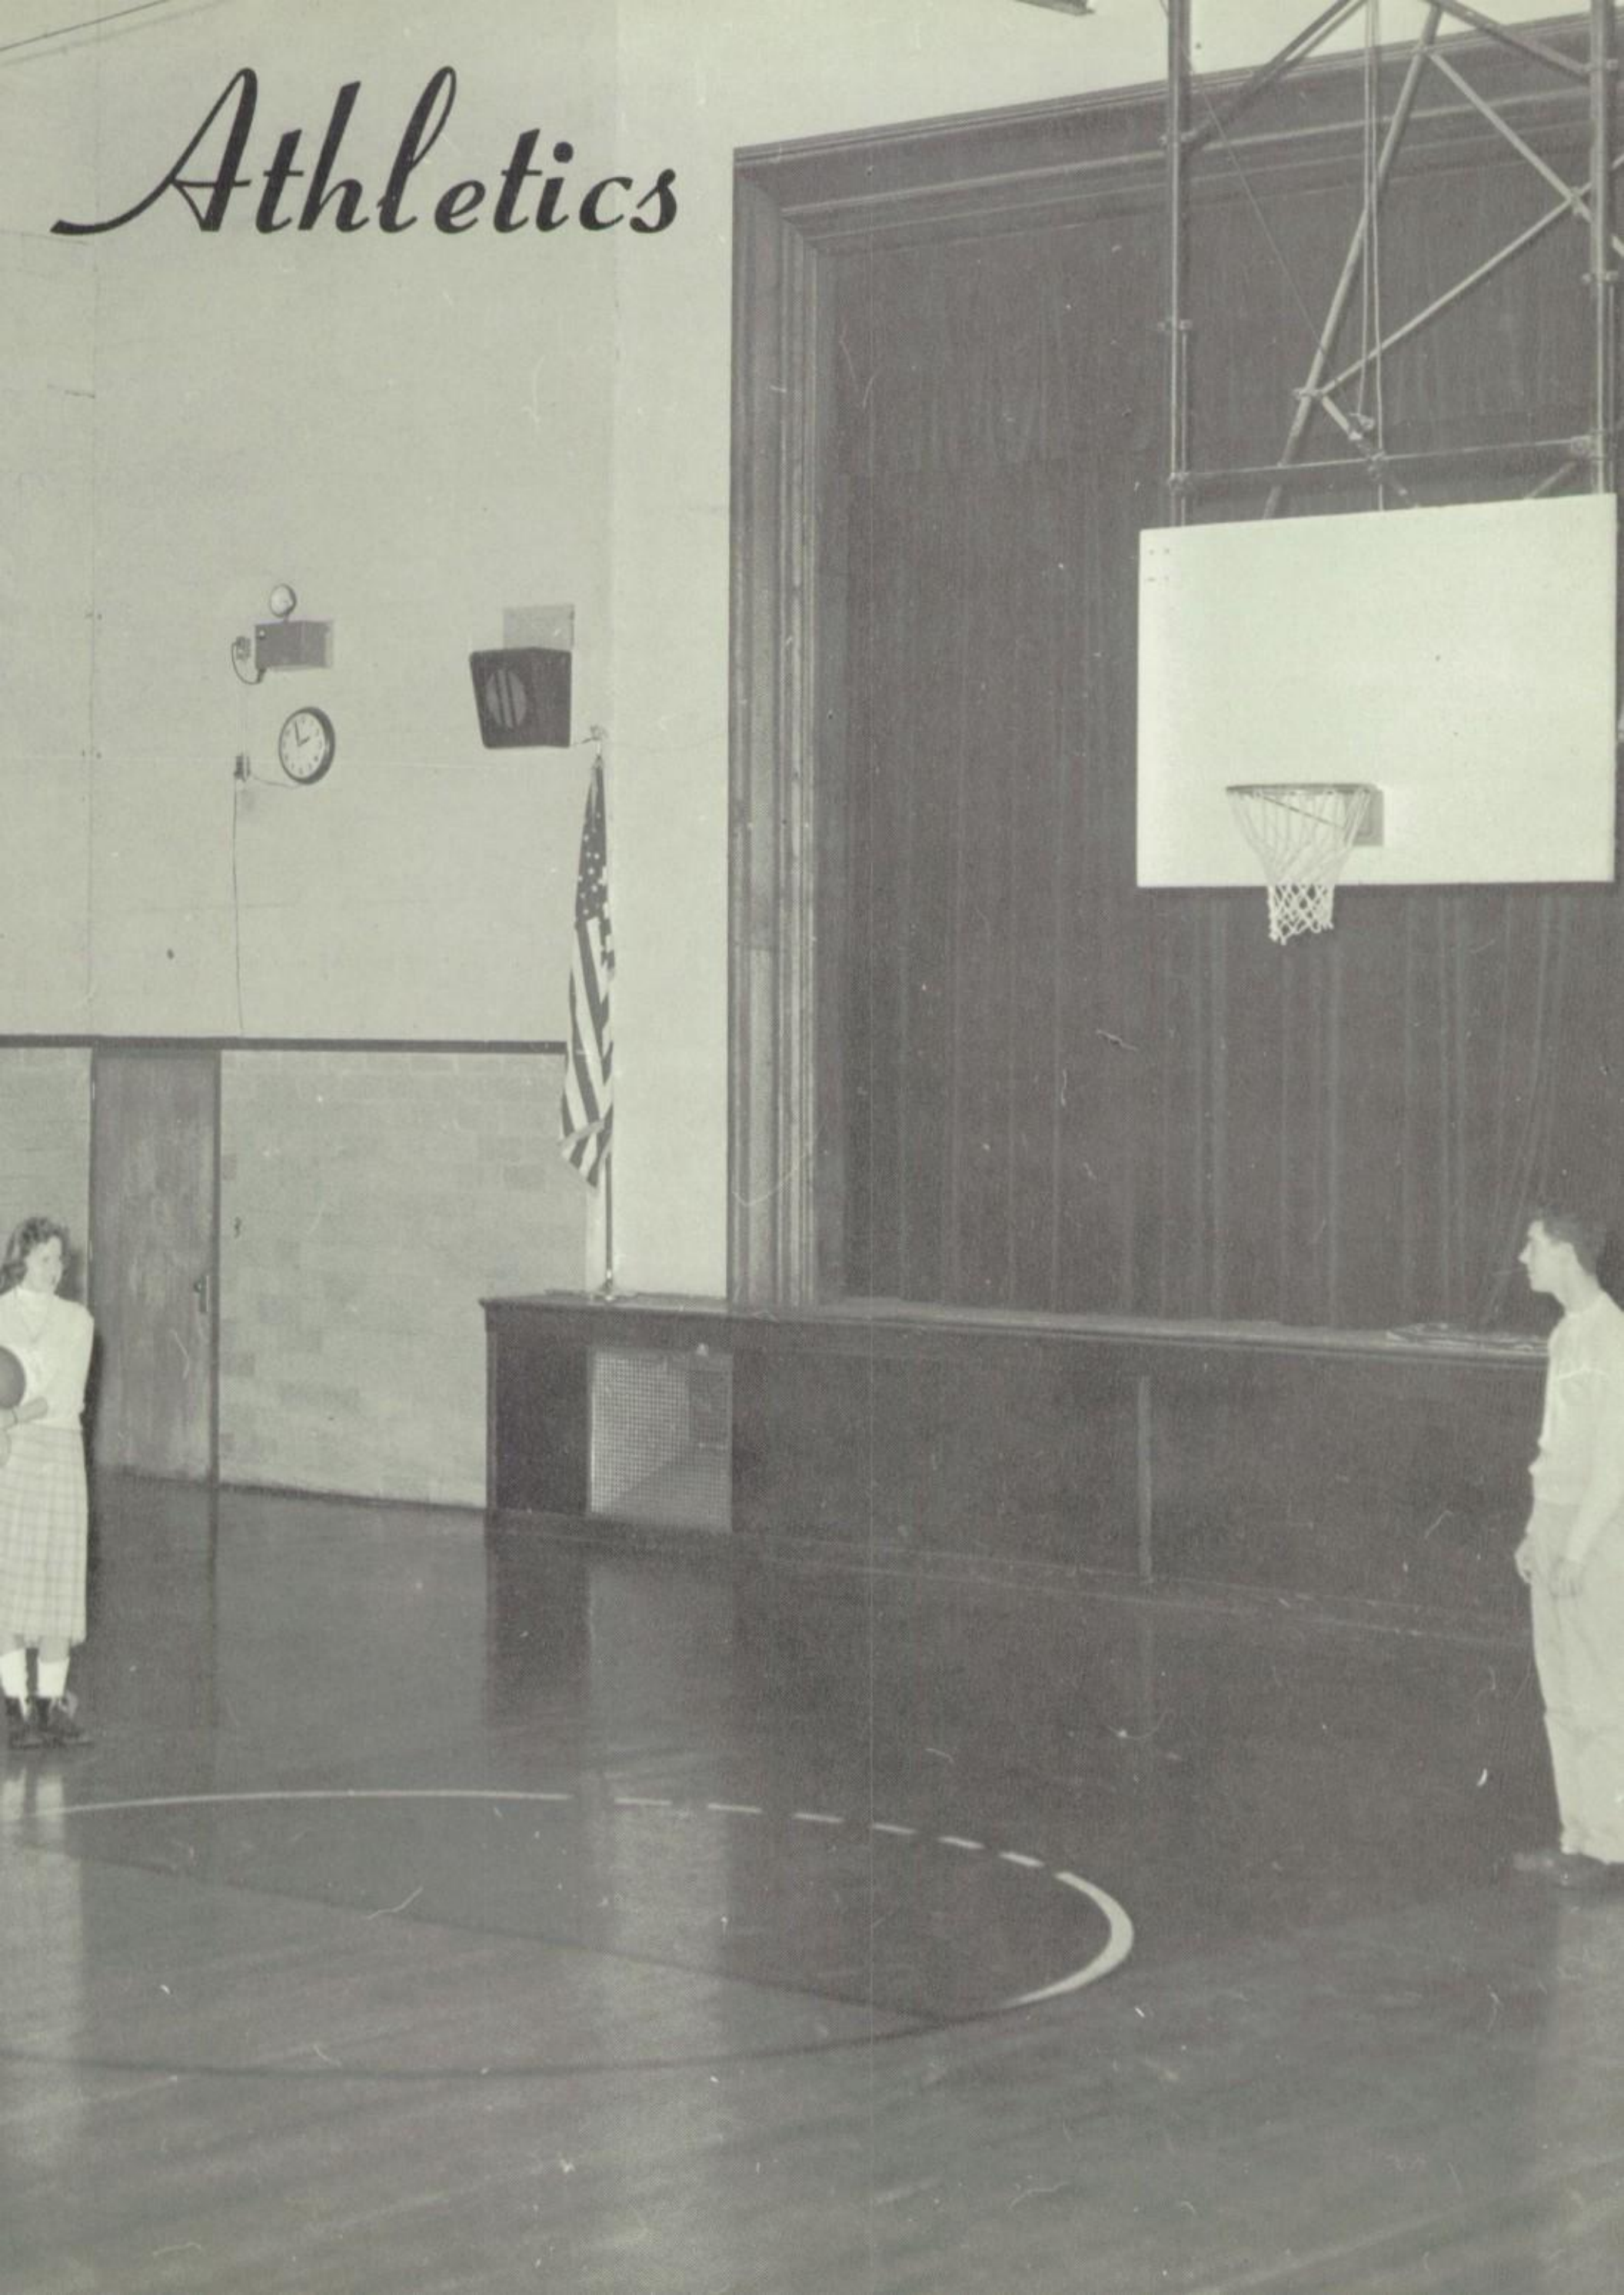

On May 23, the annual Junior Prom was held. "Magic Moments" was chosen as the theme. The gym was decorated with pink and white streamers, while murals adorned the walls and the stage. The evening was climaxed when the faculty and school board chose a queen to reign over the dance. Jeani Dunsmore was crowned queen by her predecessor, Cynthia Katsekas. All who attended the prom will remember it as one of the most enjoyable dances ever held at G.H.S.
